Dear Friend,

Knox Academy is cutting against the grain. In a culture that is decaying at every level, Knox is planting and building. At a time when the past is forgotten and the future looks bleak, we at Knox are remembering truth, goodness, and beauty. When so many around us are choosing to hide, hang their heads low, and wallow in despair, we are choosing to climb. At Knox, we are choosing the mountain, and we ask you to climb with us.

So what is Knox Academy doing that deserves your help? Knox Academy is a classical Christian school that is actively reconnecting our children to the roots of Western civilization. From the Liberal Arts to the Great Books, our school is a feast of the best that our civilization has to offer. Our students wear uniforms and do not use screens. They learn cursive, folk songs, etiquette and hymns. At Knox, we value hard work and the development of healthy habits.

Partner with us and let's build the future together!
